

We are looking for
Automation Engineer

Being a part of the future

Job Description

Ensure the function of the automation systems in the established technical parameters.
Provides the maintenance of the automation installations by applying technical intervention measurements like locating, removing, replacing, repairing electrical and electronic components of the devices;
Modification of the existing, industrial equipment to perform new functions;
Implements new project and provides technical assistance to put in place hardware and software equipment;
Proposes and implements new technical solutions to increase the efficiency and operational safety of the machines and installations within the production sites.

